

1. The first group of people who are affected by this disease are the young people who are in the age group of 15 to 25 years. This is because they are the most active and they are the most likely to get into accidents.

73